The Spirit of 1988

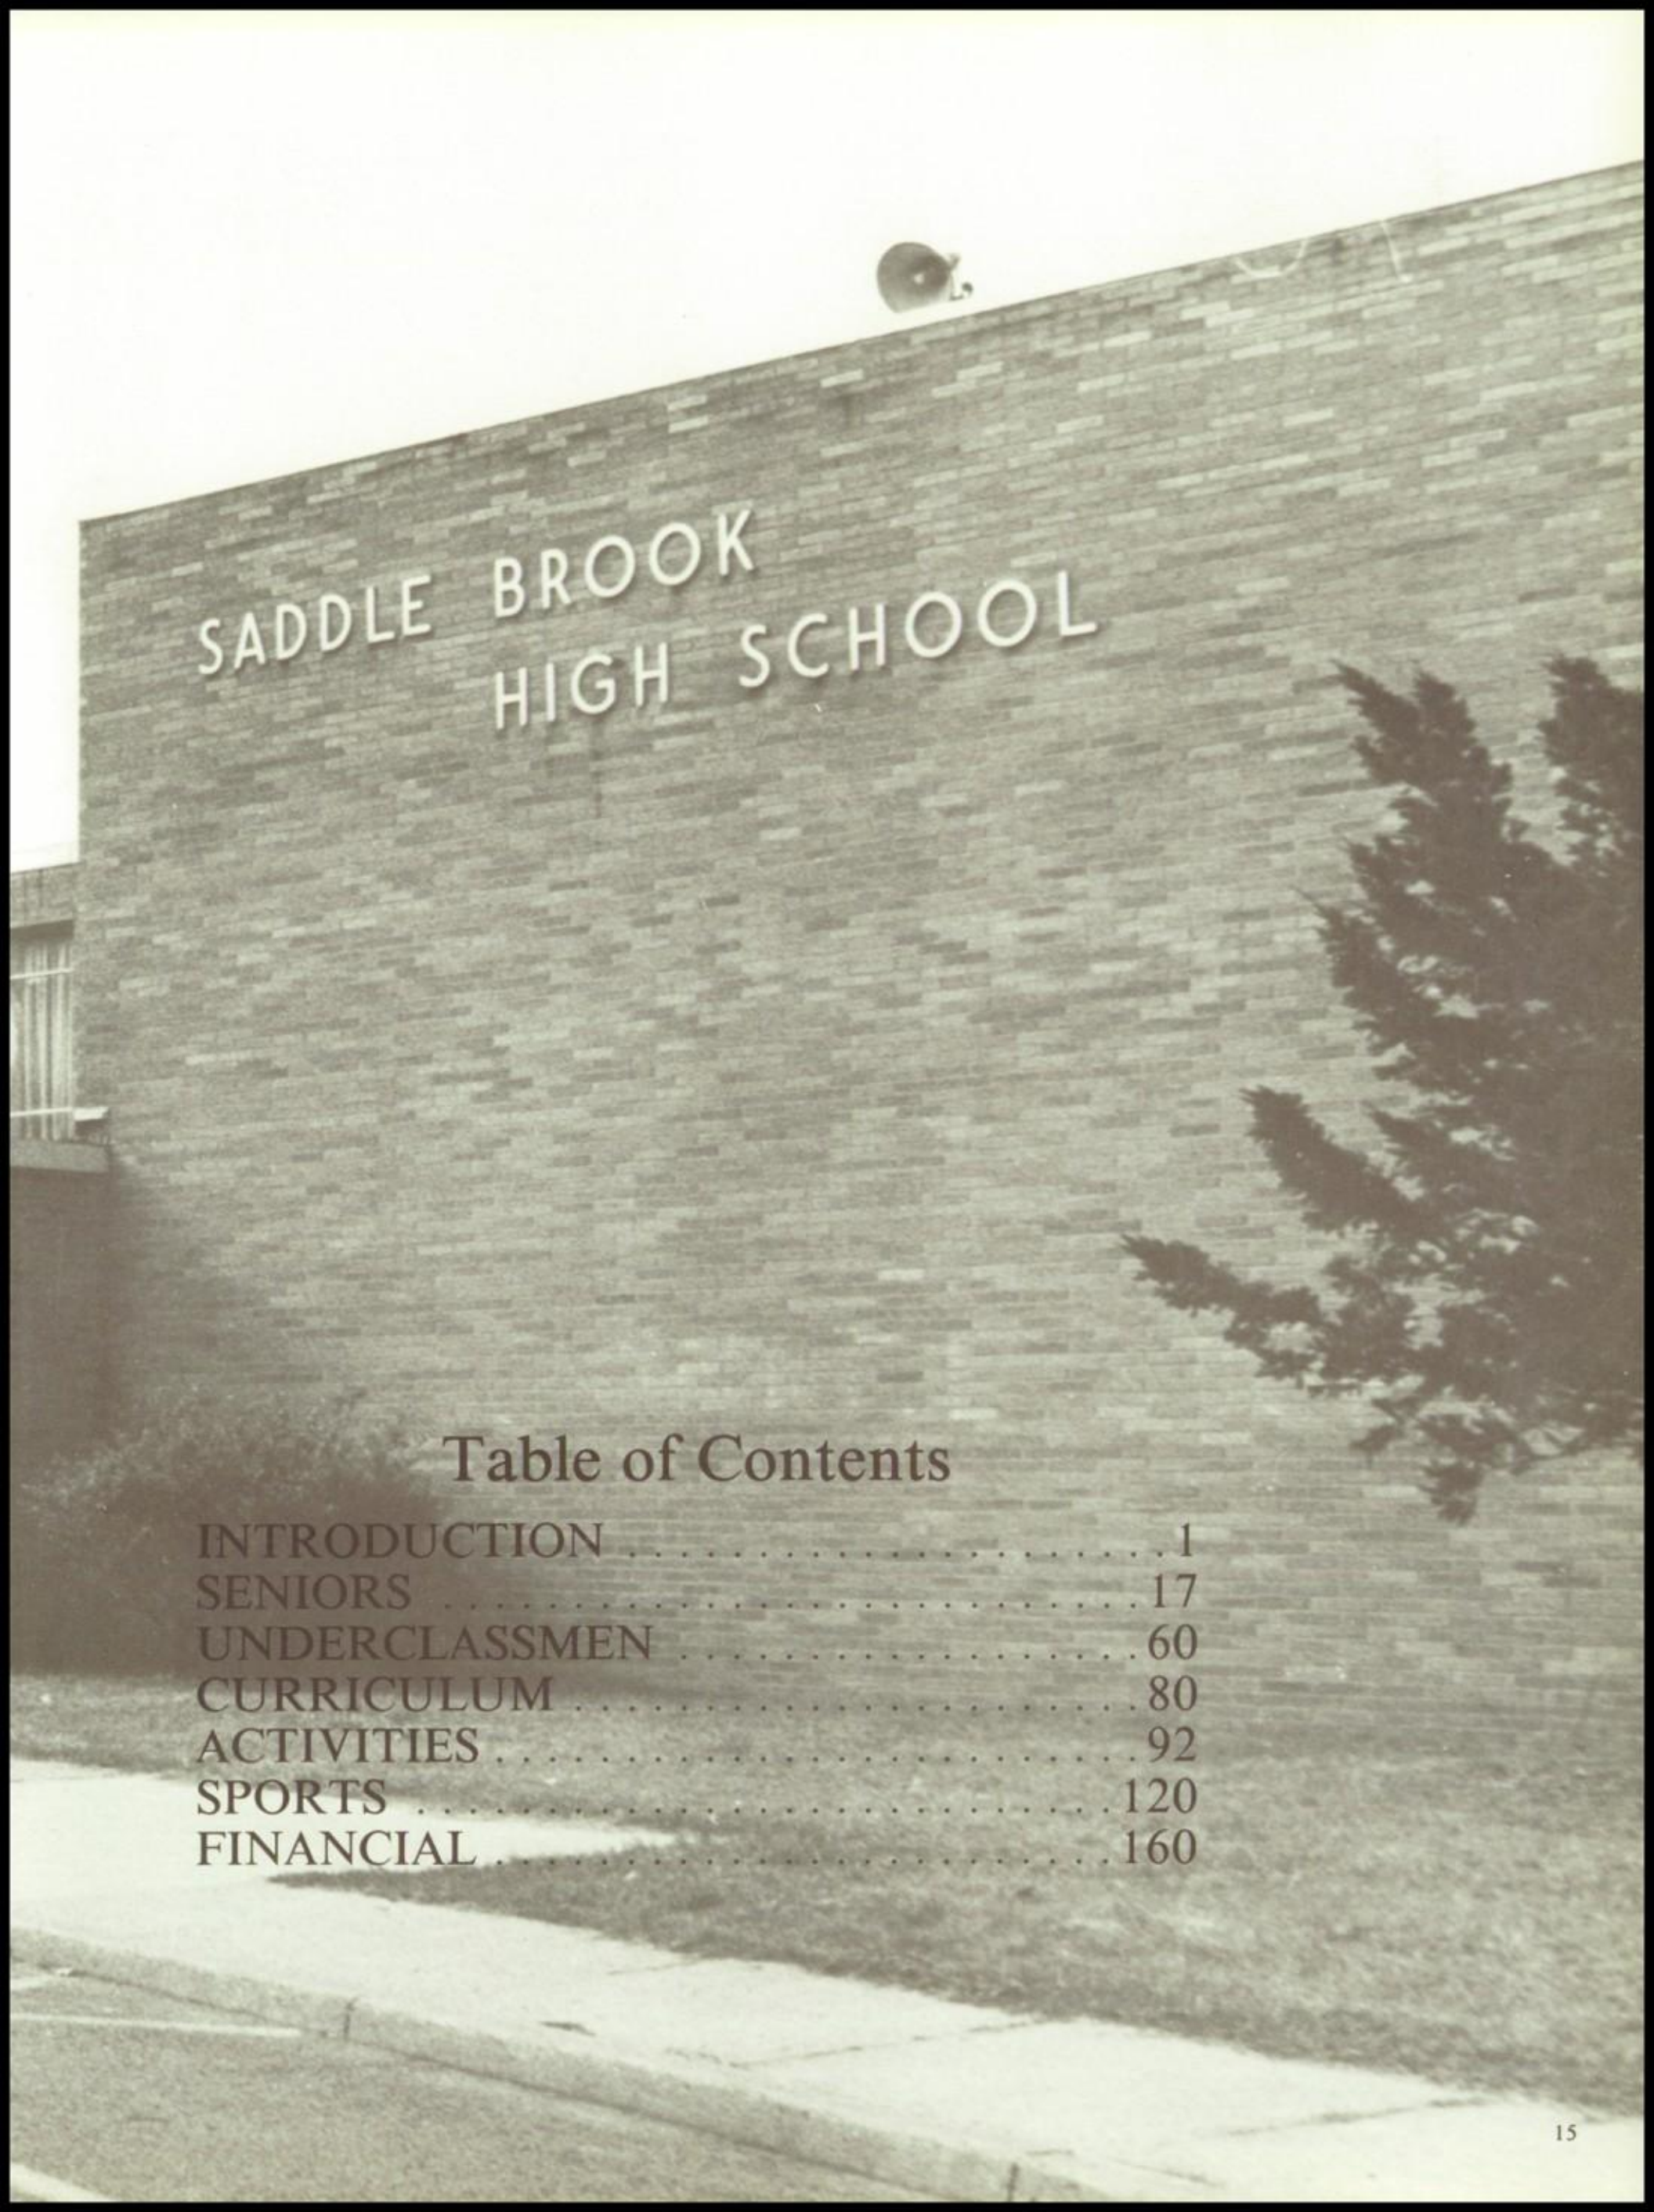

Shines Brightly

Just Hanging Out

Deep gratitude and recognition are extended to Mrs. Stauss, Mr. Bukowski, and Mrs. Heaney by the senior class, through the dedication of the '88 Aurora. Through her efforts, Mrs. Stauss has created a great amount of spirit in the school. Mr. Bukowski, during the last four years, has contributed a great deal of himself as our class advisor. And finally, we thank Mrs. Heaney for all the hard work she has exhibited in the production of the yearbook. To these people, whose help has been greatly appreciated, the class of 1988 dedicates this yearbook.

DOMINATE IN '88"

Class president Ken Marino checking progress.

During several Wednesdays in August, seniors arrived at the high school to participate in the traditional painting of the garage roof. "Dominate in '88" was chosen as this year's slogan. Mr. Bukowski and Mrs. Fuchs, senior class advisors, and also Mr. Richard Fuchs were kind enough to take time out of their summer months to supervise the event.

The roof was designed by Arlene Forman. The many seniors who worked on painting the roof were: L. Andrisani, M. Pera, C. Trivigino, K. Marino, P. J. Punzo, J. Piazza, D. Racioppi, D. Sedlmeir, A. Forman.

Hijinks on the roof by Candi Trivigino and Jen Simpatico!

Kari Barlas and Melissa Daly ready to battle.

Cheryl Pichnarcik — “R.O.T. . . . Rochelle Park . . . No, it ain’t gonna rain!!”

Carmen Pizzuto — He has no friends.

Tony Primavera — I heard it but he’s got a hook on his foot. Yeah, right!

Rosemarie Prisco — No way! O My God! That’s Beat!

P. J. Punzo — I’m only kidding! Winner! Don’t mess with the Vet!

Dianne Racioppi — Aw . . . I’m sorry.

Dina Radman — No, I don’t think so . . . Ahh Hello ____! That’s Attractive. FTS!

Melissa Randaisi — Yea Sure! You Beast!

Kim Redl — EE!!! How Fun! . . . Wait — I don’t get it . . . What!?? Are you Serious?!!

Bill Reining — SAME THING!!

Marge Ann Ribustello — But Wait . . . Can I ask you something? Can I kill you now or later? Oh my God! I don’t understand!

Frank Sansone — Hey guy, I wouldn’t do it. Why would you?

Dawn Sedlmeir — “Watchamacallit,” and that type of thing!! Oh, I don’t know!

Jennifer Simpatico — Holy cow, your mudda!!! Steve B. — you’re Goohd!!

Ken Slowik — You’re beat!

Damaris Soler — Yeah that’s it Bud! What did you say? You never said that!

Dawn Stasion — Oh, please! La La La La, I can’t hear you.

Joe Tolvay — I can’t believe I made Class of 88!

Billy Tommas — “That’s it guys, no more picking on the little kid.”

Candi Trivigino — No, REALLY, I’m right. No, guys, I’m POSITIVE that I am RIGHT!

Vic Van Dyk — Caanndd!

Nicole Vara — I’m Back!!! Chiffon! Hey, hey — Who her!

Shirin Walele — Wait — Do I have enough time?!?

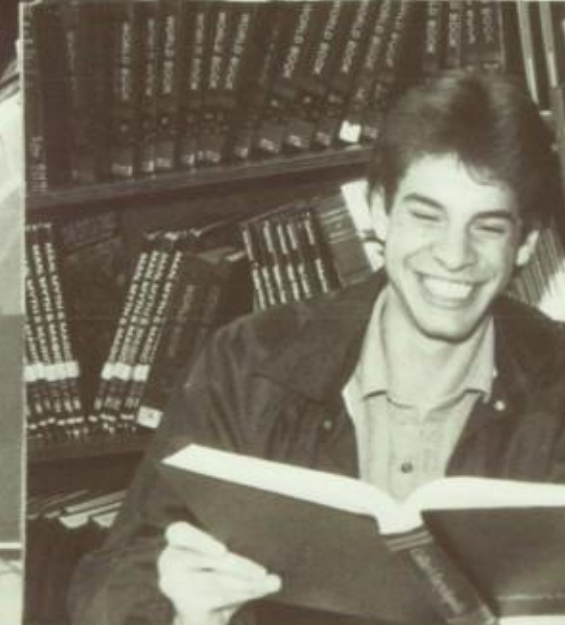

Dave Walker — I’m singin’ the blues.

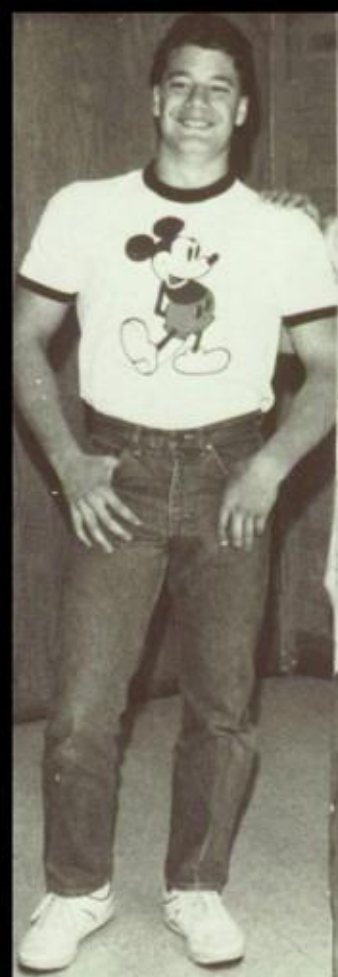

Robert Walker — Whata ya’ doing? Take a Chill. What the Heck. What’s Happening! What Be Up? You need Help. You’re a sick child.

Paris Yazdian — Hey this is great.

Scott Zotollo — You’re doing it wrong! That’s kind of harsh! How would you like to mow my lawn?!

THE BEST TIMES IN '89

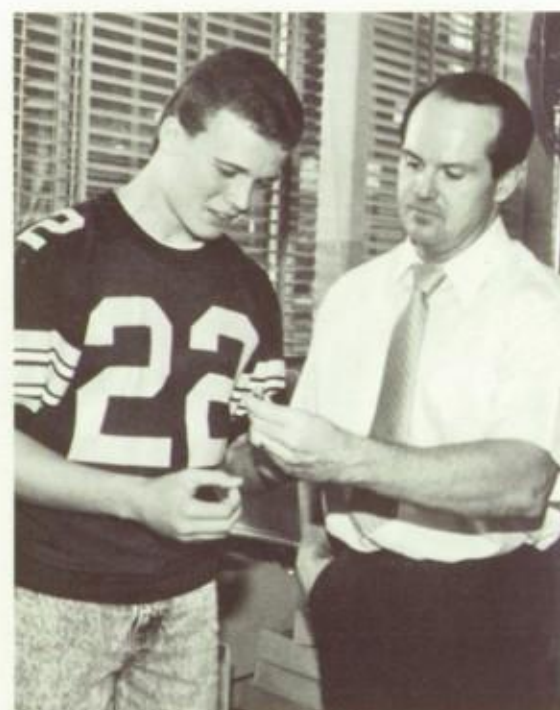

A turn for luck!

The Junior Ring Breakfast was held on Oct. 16, 1987. They were served rolls, bagels, and pastries. President Jeff DeGennaro called up the juniors to receive their rings. The rings were turned 89 times to the left and right for luck. Some numbers have special meanings. They are: (1) — Best Friend, (13) — Enemy, (89 or highest) — Boy or Girlfriend.

Dear Graduate,

In a short while you will pass an important milestone in your life. Graduation. It marks the end of high school . . . and the beginning of a promising future.

But more importantly, graduation marks achievement. You are about to join the distinguished ranks of people throughout history who have proudly marched through the commencement ceremony . . . a ceremony of honor and recognition of educational status. You've earned the rights and privileges due a high school graduate. You've succeeded where many have failed. You have every right to be proud.

As faculty and administrators, we're proud of your accomplishments, too. Your success reflects on our high standards and dedication to you . . . and your success shines brightly.

Congratulations,

Jane Moffet

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council this year is under the guiding hand of Mr. Cahayla. Along with a new advisor, the student council has also adopted a newly structured body.

This new form allows students to be heard through their homeroom representatives who then voice their opinions at the monthly meeting.

Events sponsored by the Student Council include: Freshman Orientation, Spirit Week, Back to School Night, Halloween Dance, Mr. Saddle Brook Contest, 50's Dance, Teacher Appreciation Day, and Student Government Day. The council also held a carnation sale, balloon sale, and a jelly bean contest.

The officers also went to Rider College to participate in programs concerning government so that they might incorporate this knowledge in their own school's government.

Dancing up a storm are sophomores Debbie Wittig and Janice Pritch.
